

Reconstruction of existing buildings and extension of buildings of the Transport and Electrical Schools Complex of the Lifelong Learning Centre aimed at establishing the Practical Education Centre along with equipment

Project description:

Reconstruction of a building complex of the Transport and Electrical Schools Complex and their equipping has led to establishment of the Practical Education Centre in Ostrów Wielkopolski. The Centre is attended by pupils from the Transport and Electrical Schools Complex, Technical Schools Complex and Building and Energy Schools Complex. Pupils learn in eighteen modernly equipped vocational workshops and five classrooms in twenty professions from several leading sectors of the economy: building, mechanical, electrotechnical, energy, automotive and transport. Pupils gain a profession, inter alia, such as: building technician, bricklayer, building and finishing work fitter, sanitary network and installation fitter, carpenter, electrical technician, cutting tool operator, locksmith, mechanic - machinery and equipment fitter, motor vehicle technician, motor vehicle mechanic, motor vehicle electromechanical engineer, mechatronics technician, renewable energy equipment and system technician, refrigeration and air-conditioning technician, graphics and digital polygraphy technician.

Detailed information:

Beneficiary:

The Ostrów District

Programme:

WRPO 2014+

Fund:

European Regional Development Fund

Total value of the project:

13 188 661,40 PLN

EU's contribution:

9 622 447,34 PLN

